KRESTEN PALACE, Hotel & Wellness

Hotel Description

Ideally situated next to the popular beach at Kallithea, the Kresten Palace Hotel’s elegant rooms (from 25 to 35 m²) decorated in earthy colours take your holiday experience in Rhodes to a whole new level. Each one of the 285 rooms is an oasis of authentic hospitality with comfortable beds and brand-new mattresses, remodelled bathrooms with tubs, an updated sitting area, satellite TV and revamped balconies with a panoramic view of the sea or the lush, green gardens with the palm trees. The greatest luxury of all is the feeling travellers experience that they have found that much-sought-after “home away from home” they’ve been looking for.

The magnificent view from the spacious rooms at the 4-star Kresten Palace Hotel, built in a superb location on 6 hectares of green, on a hill right next to Kallithea beach and a stone’s throw from the medieval city of Rhodes and Faliraki -hyperlink Location-, is just one of the features that for years now have made this hotel a favourite “home away from home” for travellers and families -hyperlink family room-.

At the remodelled Kresten Palace, guests can enjoy the most authentic version of the famed Rhodian hospitality. It starts with the first bite of the Greek breakfast feast served in the restaurant -hyperlink Restaurant-, relaxing on the comfortable sunbeds by the main pool of 1,270 m² and shaded by palm trees, or at the magical private beach, the delicious Greek and Mediterranean dishes on the restaurant menu, the healing facial and body treatments using products from the Greek land at the spa -hyperlink spa- and the imaginative cocktails at the spectacularly designed bar -hyperlink Red bar- with a panoramic view of the sea.

A multifaceted travel experience that in the best possible way meets the needs of both travellers who enjoy the oasis of comfort offered by its spacious rooms and of families preferring the convenient hominess of the family rooms and services for children that include dozens of activities provided daily by a specialised team, a playground, a fish-shaped children’s swimming pool and mini-golf.

The Kresten Palace Hotel, just 10 minutes by car (6 km) from the medieval city of Rhodes, and the nightlife hotspot of Faliraki known worldwide (8 km from the port and 19 km from the Rhodes International Airport), is the ideal starting point for exploring the wealth of natural beauty and centuries-long history of Rhodes.

The open space hosts afternoon events with Greek traditional dancing, ever-popular animation shows and other musical and dance events, while at night, it becomes the venue for the Kresten Palace's nightlife. Open daily 17:00-01:00 hrs.

Facilities

A hotel stay that includes everything from a 1,270 m² pool, a private beach and spa to tennis, beach volley and mini-golf facilities and free parking.

Amongst other things, Kresten Palace, Hotel & Wellness offers its guests an impressive, tropical pool of 1,270 m² with a pool bar, an oasis of wellness at the Aegeo Spa using products made from the Greek land, a variety of sports facilities, a fully equipped business centre, an updated children's playground and a complete in-house shopping experience that includes a souvenir shop – mini market.

All this, combined with free high-speed wi-fi in the common areas (and in the rooms for an additional charge), free parking, baggage storage and 24/7 reception desk ready to assist you with bicycle and car rentals, foreign exchange or organising special excursions, and to answer any questions you may have about Rhodes and its hidden surprises.

* There may be an additional charge for use of some of the above facilities or services.

SPA & Wellness

An oasis of relaxation and wellness with a Jacuzzi, sauna, massage and beauty treatments using products with Greek ingredients awaits you at the Kresten Palace, Hotel & Wellness.
The therapeutic and rejuvenating properties, known since antiquity, of olives, honey, seaweed and other products of the Greek earth comprise the core of the philosophy behind the exciting list of massage and beauty treatments for the face and body at the Aegeo Spa.

A unique wellness experience available to Kresten Palace, Hotel & Wellness guests that includes a Jacuzzi, sauna, hamam and massage rooms (individual or couple) as well as manicures and pedicures.

Start or finish up your day with a relaxing massage at the hands of our specialists and let your body and mind be reborn.

Sports & Leisure

A finely equipped fitness centre, a range of courts (tennis, beach volley, mini-golf course) and a games room are at the Kresten Palace to provide recreation.

The multi-faceted experience that the Kresten Palace, Hotel & Wellness offers its guests includes a wide variety of sports activities. It all starts with special programmes for adults and children (guided by experienced trainers) that take place around the swimming pool in the mornings. Later on, guests can use the remodelled fitness centre (with all new equipment), the tennis court, the beach volley court and the mini-golf course, or visit the game room which includes a ping pong and a billiards table. The Kresten Palace, Hotel & Wellness also hosts special events featuring traditional Greek dances and the ever-popular animation shows it is known for.

Swimming Pool

A vast swimming pool of 1,270 m², with bridges and palm trees, and a children’s pool in the shape of a fish offer hours of refreshing fun.
Strategically situated at the centre of the Kresten Palace compound, the vast swimming pool of 1,270 m², with bridges and towering palm trees, make you feel as if you have been transported to a tropical paradise.

Start your day by relaxing on one of the dozens of comfortable sunbeds around the pool, and enjoy a coffee, refreshing juice or delicious snack from the BLU pool bar restaurant menu. Take time for some enjoyable games in the water, or participate in the fun programme of sporting activities (for adults and children) that are organised here in the mornings.

A ‘water town’ bursting with green, and incorporating the fish-shaped children pool nearby, rightfully holds pride of place as the centre of activity at the Kresten Palace, Hotel & Wellness, open until 18:00.

Beach

Dip into the crystalline waters and relax on one of the comfortable sunbeds at the Kresten Palace, Hotel & Wellness’s private beach.

The hotel’s idyllic beach (only accessible to hotel guests), just 200 metres from the main building. Start your day by enjoying the life-giving Greek sun on one of the comfortable sunbeds on either side of the wooden ramp that intersects it, cooling off with an occasional dive from the specially designed wooden dock. At the Kresten Palace, Hotel & Wellness’s beach, you will also find a changing hut and shower facilities.
A remodelled 100 m² playground, surrounded by nature, awaits the young guests of the Kresten Palace, Hotel & Wellness Hotel in Kallithea, Rhodes.

The fully outfitted 100 m² playground, located in the lush green gardens of the Kresten Palace Hotel and close to the children’s pool and mini-golf course, promises hours of carefree play on the creative and safe equipment. It’s one of many services the Kresten Palace offers its young friends, along with the spacious family rooms, irresistible children’s menus, the mini-disco and experienced entertainers who lead a programme of sports activities at the pool in the morning and shows in the evening.

Location

Ideally situated at Kallithea beach, 6 km from the medieval city of Rhodes, the Kresten Palace, Hotel & Wellness is perfect to use as a base for exploring the rest of the island.

Ideally situated at the popular beach of Kallithea, 6 km from the medieval city of Rhodes (accessible by car or frequent public transport), the Kresten Palace, Hotel & Wellness is a lush green oasis of comfort and affordable luxury.

But is also the perfect starting point for exploring the numerous sights of the largest of the Dodecanese islands, with its rich history, world-famous monuments, castles and archaeological sites, and dozens of magnificent beaches.

The Kresten Palace, Hotel & Wellness is just 10 minutes by car (6 km) from both the medieval city of Rhodes, a UNESCO World Heritage site, and from Faliraki, known the world over for its pulsating nightlife. Even nearer (at 3 km) is the charming medieval village of Koskinou. The hotel is just as easily reached from the port of Rhodes (15 minutes by car, 8.1 km) as from the Rhodes International Airport (22 minutes by car, 19 km).

The experienced and hospitable staff at the Kresten Palace, Hotel & Wellness are at your service to help you explore the many aspects of our cosmopolitan island, following in the footsteps of the Colossus of Rhodes (one of the Seven Wonders of the Ancient World) and the long line of civilisations and people (Byzantines, Knights of St John, Ottomans, Italians) who helped shape the island’s unique character.

Medieval City

This UNESCO World Heritage Site, which is the largest inhabited medieval city in Europe, is 6 km from the Kresten Palace, Hotel & Wellness.

Transport yourself back in time by walking through the cobblestone narrow streets of the medieval city of Rhodes. It will soon feel as if, just around the corner, you will run into one of the Knights of St John on horseback. These Knights occupied the island from 1309 to 1522 and the island’s present-day character is largely owed to them. The numerous towering gates, the well-preserved medieval fortress walls and moat, the atmospheric Street of the Knights, the imposing Palace of the Grand Master (now housing the Byzantine Museum), the Hospital built by the Knights (now housing the Archaeological Museum) and the busy Ippokratous Square are just a few of the exciting sites to visit. Although the true appeal of the medieval city is that you never know what amazing aspect you will encounter next.

Kallithea

With a panoramic view of the sea overlooking the private beach, the Kresten Palace Hotel is situated on a stretch of coast famous since antiquity.

Famous for its thermal springs, the beneficial action of which has been known since the time of the Doric Hexapolis league and the Knights Hospitalet, Kallithea has always been the perfect location to stay in Rhodes. A magnificent beach, located near the medieval city of Rhodes, the town of Faliraki with its intense nightlife and the picturesque village of Koskinou. A special hospitality experience that combines the idyllic setting with the panoramic view from the Kresten Palace, Hotel & Wellness, with the convenience of finding all the shops and services (stores, supermarkets, petrol stations and ATMs) visitors may need.

Events

Celebrate a romantic wedding or anniversary, or enjoy a social event that you and your guests will long remember.

You can rely on the Kresten Palace, Hotel & Wellness and its experienced team to help you arrange the wedding, anniversary, baptism or any other social occasion of your dreams. Take or renew your vows at the charming chapel located on the 6 hectare grounds and enjoy a lovely reception next to the elegantly decorated space around the main pool with the bridges and towering palm trees, or at our private beach. With confidence in our extensive experience and assurance that we will be at your side at every step of the process, we will make sure your special evening will remain indelibly imprinted in your and your guests’ memory.

“Meticulous attention in every detail, makes a hotel great”...

“Thank you for your valuable time taken to read our description. We hope that we will be given the opportunity to welcome you and offer you our genuine Greek hospitality.”
